FINAL COMMUNIQUÉ

The Final Communiqué will represent the views and recommendations of Global Ministerial Forum participants, all of whom have a stake in research for health. These stakeholders include policy-makers and researchers focusing on the key linkages between the health sector and research, science and technology, higher education and the global innovation system, research funding organizations, representatives from civil society, the media and the private sector.

The Communiqué, developed during the Global Ministerial Forum, will be drawn directly from presentations made and discussions held during the meeting. The draft Communiqué will be read out in the plenary on the last day of the Global Ministerial Forum and will be open to comments from all participants before it is finalized.
